History:

While India gained independence from the British in 1947, it wasn't until 26th January, 1950 that the Indian Constitution came into effect and India became a sovereign state, declaring it a republic. The Indian Constitution was drafted by Dr. B R Ambedkar who is known as the Architect of the Indian Constitution. 26th January was chosen as the day to announce India becoming a Republic as in 1929 on the same day the Indian National Congress denounced colonial rule and proclaimed Purna Swaraj, "complete freedom from the British". The Constitution was adopted by the Indian Constituent Assembly on 26th November, 1949 and came into force in 1950 under a democratic government system. This completed the country's transition into becoming a sovereign republic.
