World Consumer Rights Day

World Consumer Rights Day, coordinated by Consumers International, the membership organization for consumer groups around the world, takes place every year to highlight the power of consumers and their rights for a fair, safe and sustainable marketplace for everyone.

World Consumer Rights Day was inspired by President John F Kennedy, who sent a special message to the US Congress on 15th March, 1962. In this, he addressed the issue of consumer rights. Together through consumer advocacy, we honour this with an international voice.

President John F Kennedy quotes the Consumer rights for the first time- the right to safety, the right to be informed, the right to choose and the right to be heard. To mark the occasion Ms. Sreeranjani K Rao, Asst. Prof, Dept of Commerce shared information on rights of consumer, consumer forum, redressal of consumers' grievances etc.
