

NCC Training Camp

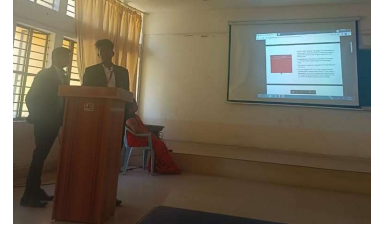

On the 4th of February, GSSS SSFGC sent three students for an NCC training camp – Kruthika TD, Vedika and Harshavardhan – all from the 1st year of BCA. The students had an opportunity to use firearms, and were drilled in some basic army exercises – giving them a glimpse of a future career in the army. The students were quite positive about the experience, and one hopes that it will help them in the future.

Union Budget Presentation by Students

On the 15th of February, the second year and third year students of BBA and BCom departments gave a presentation highlighting the important implications of the Union Budget of the calendar year of 2022-23. They explained the budget in detail, showcasing how the economy of a country like India works.
