

GOMBE UTHSAVA

The Department of Commerce and Business Administration hosted a Gombe Uthsav event on October 5, 2024 at GSSS SSFGC to mark Karnataka's artistic tradition and legacy and also to uphold the importance of Dasara. The department's Gombe Uthsava, which was themed, gave the students a special opportunity to connect with their cultural heritage while also encouraging creativity and teamwork. The event saw a high level of participation from students across different years and disciplines.

POWER POINT PRESENTATION COMPETITION

On 5th October, 2024 the Department of Computer Application held a Power Point presentation competition for BCA students in observance of Cyber Security Awareness Month with the goal of raising awareness of cyber threats and equipping young people with the skills they need to be safer and more secure online. The objective of this competition was to educate students about cyber risks, ethical hacking, online safety tips, and the latest developments in cyber security.

TECHNICAL TALK ON 'MACHINE LEARNING'

The primary goal of the club activity was to help the students comprehend both basic and complex machine learning topics, such as algorithms, models, frameworks, etc aids students in developing a solid foundation in machine learning, hands-on learning, exposure to real-world AI applications, improving problem-solving abilities, and career counseling. This program was designed with BCA students in mind.

OATH TAKING CEREMONY

On Friday, October 4, 2024, the Department of Computer Applications hosted the Server Monk Club activity. The club activity was attended by BCA students in their I, III, and V semesters. A ceremony for taking an oath was the activity. The election for the BCA departmental student council took place on September 27, 2024. The purpose of this function was to administer badges to students who were elected to the student council and to take an oath. It was our esteemed principal, Dr. Rakesh T. S., who distributed the badges. Students can gain empowerment and get ready for future civic engagement through the hands-on learning experience that student elections offer.

COMMERCE AND MANAGEMENT CLUB ACTIVITY – FISH BOWL GROUP DISCUSSION

The group discussion activity was held on 8th October, 2024 for the students of Commerce and Business Administration with the objective of fostering communication, critical thinking, and collaborative problem-solving among participants. The topic chosen for the session was Fish Bowl, aiming to provide a platform for diverse perspectives and constructive debate. The activity was structured to encourage participants to express their opinions, listen actively, and engage with each other's viewpoints in a respectful manner.

‘GHRANTHAYANA’

Students from every department of GSSS SSFGC, led and overseen by Mr. Ankaraju. M, Asst Librarian gave an exceptional performance in the drama "Ghranthayana" on October 9th, 2024 organized by Library and Information Science Department. The students were commended for their outstanding performance by the program's chief guests Harinaraya, Senior Associate Prof, Department of Library and Information Science, Praveen, Writer, Theatre Artist, Mysuru. On his remarks, Dr. Rakesh, Pricipal, GSSS SSFGC expressed his pride on the students' success in all areas and discussed the value of libraries and how to protect them and make the best use of it.

SARASWATHI POOJA

Saraswati Puja, celebrated annually, is dedicated to Goddess Saraswati, the deity of knowledge, wisdom, music, and the arts. At GSSS SSFGC the Puja was observed with great reverence and enthusiasm on 10th October, 2024. The event was organized by the Department of Commerce and Business Administration, bringing together students, faculty, and staff to honor the goddess and seek her blessings for wisdom and success in their academic and professional pursuits.

AAYUDHA POOJA at GSSS

The Ayudha Pooja was performed on October 11th, 2024 at GSSS SSFGC. On this auspicious day, all of the faculties gathered to seek the blessings of the goddess of wisdom and prosperity. Pooja was done for all of the tools and books. At the end, everyone was fed prasad.

GOVERNANCE TALK: 'EMPOWERING YOUTH and WOMEN for SUSTAINABLE FUTURE'

On October 16th, 2024, GRAAM India successfully held an exciting Governance Talk on "Gender Responsive Governance: Empowering Youth and Women for a Sustainable Future," which was organized in collaboration with the Hanns-Seidel Foundation, India, and GSSS Simha Subbamaalakshmi First Grade College. The discussions, which featured a distinguished lineup of speakers such as Dr. Rakesh T.S., Principal at GSSS SSGFC; Smt. Kavitha Rajaram, KAS, Additional Regional Commissioner Mysore; and Smt. Adv. M.A. Hemalatha, Mediator appointed by the Karnataka High Court, highlighted the vital role that youth can play in promoting gender-responsive governance. The influence of universal adult suffrage, the power of voting, and the ability of empowered young to effect revolutionary change were among the main subjects covered. The significance of youngsters involvement in governance was also underlined by Shri. Bhagavan Bidarakote, Head of Impact Innovation and Knowledge Consulting at GRAAM. This seminar, which was a component of the Hanns- Seidel Foundation and GRAAM's Youth for Governance Fellowship, reaffirmed the importance of youth participation in creating sustainable, equitable, and resilient governance.

CITY INTER-COLLEGIATE SPORTS COMPETITION

On October 16th, 2024, St. Joseph's College for Women's, Rammnahalli, Mysore hosted the City Intercollegiate Women's Volleyball Tournament. In this competition, our collegiate women's volleyball teams competed and performed admirably. After defeating four teams in the tournament, our squad advanced to the final and won second place. The team received congratulations for their accomplishments from Dr. Rakesh. T.S, Principal, GSSS SSFGC.

SERVER MONK

The Department of Computer Applications organized the Server Monk Club event on Friday, October 18TH, 2024. Students from BCA I, III, and V semesters participated in the club activity. The event was an IDP study abroad orientation workshop. Students left the seminars with the information and self-assurance they needed to succeed in their foreign education endeavors. Mr. Srinidhi G., Strategic Alliance Manager, IDP, Mysore, was the session's speaker.

CLUB ACTIVITY- RISK ANALYSIS

On 22nd October 2024, the Department of Commerce and Business Administration organized the event Risk Analysis as a part of the department's club activity. The event mainly focused about creating awareness about national and international financial sector scenario. The activity helped the students to understand and analyze various activities and terminologies of financial sector.

WOMEN'S THROWBALL & KHO KHO TOURNAMENT 2024-25

On October 23rd, 2024, GSSS Simha Subbamaahalakshmi First Grade College in Mysuru conducted the Mysore City intercollegiate women's throwball and KHO KHO tournament for 2024–2025. The main guest at GSSS Simha Subbamaahalakshmi First Grade College in Mysore was renowned professional cyclist Lokesh Narsimhachar. Mr. Darshan N.J, the Physical Education Director of GSSS First Grade College, Mysuru and Mr. Krishne Gowda, Consultant, Sports Coach, GSSS SSFGC, Mysuru supervised the event. The college's principal, Dr. Rakesh TS, conducted the felicitation. Teresian College Director Anthony Moses attended the event as well and wished all of the athletes who were competing the best of luck. Lokesh Narsimhachar stressed the value of sports in discipline and character development during his chief guest speech. He emphasized the vital role that athletics can play in molding people and cultivating an optimistic outlook. The presidential speech was given by Principal Dr. Rakesh T. S. where he urged all students to find a sport or physical activity that excites them and make it a part of their routine. Whether it's running, swimming, football, basketball, badminton, or anything else, the benefits are countless. He also said that a healthy mind resides in a healthy body, and the lessons learned through sports will stay for a lifetime. Thirty college teams from throughout Mysuru participated in the competition and displayed their skills. In the final of Kho Kho tournament, the Vivekananda PU College, finished in first place, defeating GSSSIETW, Mysuru which finished in second place. Third place was earned by PGSCMGM College. Students from JSS College for Women emerged as winners in the throw ball tournament.

WALL MAGAZINE PRESENTATION

On 25th, October 2024 the Department of Computer Application organized a Wall Magazine Presentation on Cyber Security to all the students of the department which exposed the students to threats of cyber crimes and the need of awareness towards cyber security. The activity also helped them to improvise their presentation skills and communication skill.

STUDENT COUNCIL ELECTION OF DEPARTMENT OF COMPUTER APPLICATIONS

On 27th October 2024. The department of BCA organized election for all the students of the department to encourage accountability, responsibility, and initiative in students by giving them the tools to assume leadership responsibilities. The initiative also aimed to give students a say in issues on campus by ensuring they are represented in college decision-making processes. In addition to encouraging cooperation among students from various backgrounds and giving elected officials and candidates a platform to enhance their public speaking, negotiating, and teamwork abilities, and also foster an inclusive and respectful environment.

“Life is about making right things and going on..”

– R.K. Narayan, Malgudi Days

Executive Editor

Dr. Rakesh T S, Principal, GSSS SSFGC

Assistant Editor

Dr. Sumangala, Asst Prof, Dept of Kannada

Ms. Namratha Raj, Asst Prof, Dept of English

R.K. NARAYAN– Indian Writer and Novelist