Dr K V Prabhakara

Dr K V Prabhakara, Director, speaking on the occasion expressed his concern on the ignorance of the citizens regarding Fundamental Duties. He said, "We are all ready to fight for the Fundamental Rights but we fail to perform our duties as citizens of India."

While speaking about the Constitution, he referred to the recent abolition of Article 370A which was in existence till 4th August 2019. "The Article was adopted as a temporary arrangement for the state of Jammu and Kashmir after Independence, but it took whole 70 years to abrogate it" he said.

Speaking on Emergency imposed on the Republic of India during 1970s he made a reference to one of the cartoons by Sri R K Laxman.

Following are the Fundamental Duties under the Constitution of India which is given in Part IV-A of the Constitution of India which was inserted by the (42nd Amendment) Act, 1976.

It shall be the duty of every citizens of India-

- a) to abide by the Constitution and respect its ideals and institutions, the National Flag and the National Anthem;
- b) to cherish and follow the noble ideals which inspired our national struggle for freedom;
- c) to uphold and protect the sovereignty, unity and integrity of India;
- d) to defend the country and render national service when called upon to do so;
- e) to promote harmony and the spirit of common brotherhood amongst all the people of India transcending religious, linguistic and regional or sectional diversities; to renounce practices derogatory to the dignity of women;
- f) to value and preserve the rich heritage of our composite culture;
- g) to protect and improve the natural environment including forests, lakes, rivers and wild life, and to have compassion for living creatures;
- h) to develop the scientific temper, humanism and the spirit of inquiry and reform;
- i) to safeguard public property and to abjure violence;
- j) to strive towards excellence in all spheres of individual and collective activity so that the nation constantly rises to higher levels of Endeavour and achievement.]
- [(k) Who is a parent or guardian to provide opportunities for education to his child or, as the case may be, ward between the age of six and fourteen years.]

The Fundamental duties have been incorporated in the constitution to remind every citizen that they should not only be conscious of their rights but also of their duties. The concept of Fundamental Duties was taken from the constitution of USSR along with the concept of Five Year Plan.
