Oath Taking ceremony

Date: 12th August 2025

Venue: Auditorium, GSSS SSFGC First Grade College,
Metagalli, Mysuru

Time: 2:30 PM

Introduction

The Youth Red Cross Scheme GSSS SSFCG First Grade College organized an Oath Taking Ceremony on the occasion of World Geneva Convention Day. The theme emphasized was "Humanity Must Prevail", highlighting the importance of humanitarian values, compassion, and service to society.

Event Proceedings

The program commenced in the college auditorium at 2:30 PM. Faculty members, along with a large gathering of students, actively participated in the event.

The event began with a briefing on the significance of the Geneva Conventions, which are international treaties that form the core of humanitarian laws during armed conflicts, ensuring the protection of those not participating in hostilities, such as civilians, medical personnel, and aid workers.

Following the introduction, Mr. Ravi Kiran N, Program Officer of the Youth Red Cross Society, addressed the audience, emphasizing the role of youth in upholding humanitarian principles.

The Oath Taking Ceremony was then conducted, where all participants stood and collectively took the pledge to uphold humanitarian values, protect human dignity, and contribute to society's welfare without discrimination. The atmosphere was filled with unity and a shared sense of responsibility.

Conclusion

The Oath Taking Ceremony on World Geneva Convention Day at GSSS SSFGC First Grade College was a meaningful and inspiring event. It served as a reminder of the importance of humanitarian principles and the role of youth in safeguarding them. The active participation of students reflected their awareness and commitment towards building a compassionate society.
